

ing the Russians everywhere are again in retreat.

RUSSIAN OFFICIAL.

The following official statement was issued to-night at the Russian War Office:

In the region of Riga there has been no change. In the directions of Jacobstadt and Dvinsk the fighting Friday and Saturday became intense. Between the Narva and the Bug we repulsed successfully stubborn German attacks. On the left bank of the Bug Friday and Saturday the enemy strengthened his positions against our positions along the railway from Siedelce to Lukow. We stopped this movement, and on Saturday took 800 Austro-German prisoners and some machine guns.

On the right bank of the Bug there have been no serious changes. On the Zlota Lipa, in the region south of Dusiou, our advance guards on Friday in the course of a successful reconnaissance destroyed wire entanglements and took two lines of German trenches, killing the defenders.

On the Dniester front Friday and Saturday night in the district near the confluence of the Stripa and Zlota Lipa there were actions, which were supported on the Austrian side by a heavy cannonade both from field and siege guns.

Austrians Turn Guns on Serbian Capital

London, Aug. 15.—Bombardment of Belgrade, the Serbian capital, has been resumed by the Austrians with large calibre howitzers, according to an official statement issued at Nish on Friday and telegraphed here by Reuters agency. The text of the statement follows:

"The enemy yesterday bombarded Belgrade with large calibre howitzers. There was no loss of life. The bombardment ceased after we shelled Semlin (in Austria, on the tongue of land formed by the junction of the Danube and the Save, opposite Belgrade, with which it is connected by a railway bridge) and Pancova (across the Danube from Belgrade, in Austria), causing fires in Semlin and a panic in Pancova."

Reports that the Germans and Austrians had mobilized forces estimated at from 300,000 to 400,000 men along the Serbian frontier preparatory to a campaign to crush the Serbians and open a way for the shipment of munitions to Turkey have been received from various sources in the last week. There have been several clashes between the Serbs and Austrians on the frontier in the last few days, but nothing to indicate that Serbian territory has been invaded.

Belgrade was occupied by the Austrians after a siege on December 2, 1914, but was reoccupied by the Serbians twelve days later, following a fierce battle. The recapture of their capital by the Serbs was followed by a victorious campaign which cleared their country of invaders. Until a few days ago the Austrians made no further attempts to crush their small neighbor, and the intervening time has been occupied by the Serbians in reorganizing their forces and preparing for a resumption of military activities.

HARWICH 3-TIME ZEPPELIN VICTIM

Berlin, Aug. 15 (by wireless to Sayville, Long Island).—The German Admiralty announces in an official statement that German naval airships renewed their attacks against the English east coast on Thursday night. The military establishments at Harwich, the statement says, were successfully bombarded and all the airships, although shelled by hostile batteries, returned safely.

The British official statement announcing the German airship raid on England said two Zeppelins visited the east coast between 9:30 p. m. and 11:45 p. m. on Thursday, dropping incendiary and explosive bombs in "various places." The missiles on exploding killed four men and two women, injured eleven women and nine children, all civilians, and seriously damaged fourteen houses, according to the account.

TURKS MUTINY AFTER QUARREL WITH GERMANS

Forty-five Ringleaders Sent to Constantinople in Chains.

REVOLT BELIEVED TO BE BREWING

Sultan, Dangerously Ill, Refuses to Receive German Officers.

[By Cable to The Tribune.]

Athens, Aug. 15 (Dispatch to "The London Chronicle").—The strained and increasingly bad relations between German and Turkish army officers has led to a serious crisis. I have it on quite indisputable authority that a few days ago a quarrel among the staff officers at the front on Gallipoli Peninsula led to a mutiny of formidable dimensions against the Germans. The latter were forced to take the strongest measures to quell the insurrection, and with considerable difficulty arrested the ringleaders and some other officers involved.

These, numbering forty-five, were sent to Constantinople in chains, where they would have been shot, but the German commander did not feel himself in a strong enough position to do so immediately. The arrests caused a great sensation throughout the ranks of the army and increased the very considerable indignation against the Germans, who now have few real friends, even among the most prominent Young Turks.

I have spoken to-day with four people who have just arrived here from the Turkish capital. All agree in representing the situation that it is very perilous. One of them was told by the Sultan's physician that his majesty was very ill and quite incapable of attending to state affairs, and is said to be in a serious state of nervous prostration. Audiences are denied even to the most prominent Germans.

One of the four gentlemen is a Greek of my acquaintance, who has resided for forty years in Constantinople and whose statements can be regarded as absolutely reliable. He tells me the greatest indignation was aroused in all circles in the capital by the proposal of Prince Hohenzollern-Langenberg to put Germans into the administrative posts in the capital and throughout the country. The mannerless and overbearing attitude of the Germans, meanwhile, greatly aggravates the people, and has called forth on several occasions lately vigorous protests from several of the Young Turk leaders.

ALLIED ATTACKS FAIL, SAY TURKS

Right Wing Drives Back Foe on Gallipoli, Stamboul Asserts.

Constantinople (via London), Aug. 15.—An attack directed by Anglo-French troops against the Turkish right wing north of Ari Burnu, on the Gallipoli Peninsula, was repulsed by a strong counter attack on Thursday, according to an official statement given out yesterday by the Turkish War Department.

TURKISH OFFICIAL.

The text of the statement follows: On the Dardanelles front we repulsed on Thursday by a strong counter attack a hostile attack north of Ari Burnu against our right wing. We captured some prisoners, including one officer.

The active fire of our artillery on Friday dispersed a hostile infantry battalion on Anafarta Plain and forced it to retire in the direction of Kemikli Liman.

At Ari Burnu we bombarded a hostile landing bridge.

At Sedid Bahr our artillery on the left wing destroyed an enemy installation for the throwing of bombs. Hostile airmen on Thursday evening and again on Friday morning dropped bombs at Ari Burnu, wounding nine soldiers.

GERMANS SCORN TALK OF PEACE

Papers Declare Offer to Russia Nonsense While Armies Win.

Berlin, Aug. 15 (by wireless to Sayville, N. Y.).—Among the news items prepared by the Overseas News Agency for transmission abroad is the following: "The Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung" officially denies the non-sensical stories circulated from London that Emperor William, through the King of Denmark, has offered peace to Russia, which the latter country rejected.

"The German government," the newspaper says, "naturally would not reject reasonable peace offers, but peace can come only when the hostile governments show readiness to acknowledge the failure of their military undertakings against Germany."

"German newspapers generally greet the announcement of the North German Gazette with satisfaction. They declare it to be the height of nonsense to assume that, while the German armies are driving the Russians from defeat to defeat, occupying one big fortress after the other, Germany should offer peace on such conditions."

"The 'Lokal-Anzeiger' adds that it is one of the many British mistakes in this war to insinuate that Germany is longing for peace just at the moment when her arms are victorious along the whole line. It is on a par, the newspaper says, with the story, first spread by Rumanian journals, that the German Emperor had telegraphed to the Queen of the Hellenes, announcing triumphantly the victory of German arms and saying that with the assistance of Greece, Bulgaria and Rumania the end of the war would be near."

Rome, Aug. 15.—Vatican organs today deny that Pope Benedict's appeal for peace issued July 27 was received officially by the sovereigns of the belligerent nations. No document bearing the autograph of the Pontiff, they say, was addressed to the rulers personally. The appeal to the heads of the warring states was a general one, like an encyclical, and no direct reply is expected by the Pope from the various governments or the sovereigns.

TALK OF REGENCY BY YOUNG TURKS

Sultan III, Is Report, and the Crown Prince Is Lukewarm Toward War.

London, Aug. 16.—An Athens dispatch to "The Daily Telegraph" says: "At a recent meeting of the Young Turks the question of a regency was discussed on the ground that Sultan Mahomet V is far from well and incapable of attending to affairs of state. 'The situation is complicated, however, by the knowledge that Crown Prince Yusuf Izzeddin is lukewarm in his attitude toward the war. In the hope of convincing the crown prince that all is going well party leaders recently persuaded him to pay a personal visit to the Dardanelles front.'

RUSSIANS GAIN IN CAUCASUS

Take Turkish Positions and Transport Column, Including Drove of Cattle.

Petrograd, Aug. 15 (via London).—The following statement was issued to-day at the headquarters of the army of the Caucasus:

"In the direction of Olti, in the district of Baidarsk, attempts of the Turks to resume the offensive were repulsed by infantry and machine gun fire."

"In the Valley of Passine we took the western crest of Xaza Derbent after a stubborn fight. All Turkish attempts to regain their lost position were unsuccessful."

"We captured a Turkish transport column with an escort of prisoners. The column included a large drove of cattle and wagons loaded with grenades and rifles."

A later statement regarding the operations in the Caucasus issued to-night was as follows:

"In the Passine Valley we repulsed Turkish attacks, inflicting heavy losses. 'On the Euphrates River one of our columns, continuing the pursuit, attacked and occupied Melazghert and made more than two hundred prisoners in one day."

"In the direction of Van one of our detachments met and fought the Kurds, taking many prisoners."

ITALY DENIES BOMBARDMENT HURT HER COAST

Also Says Austrians Did Not Sink Two Submarines.

Rome, Aug. 15.—A semi-official announcement issued in Rome contradicts several assertions contained in recent Austro-Hungarian official communications. The Italian statement denies the Austrian claim that great damage was wrought August 11, when two Austrian torpedo boat destroyers bombarded the seacoast towns of Bari, Santa Spiritina and Molfetta, in Southern Italy, and on the Adriatic.

Denial also is given to a report that the Italian submarine Nautilus has been sunk. Neither was the Nautilus, it also is asserted, destroyed in a combat with Austrian vessels, but it went to the bottom as the result of a fault in her machinery.

An Austrian official communication published August 13 said warships of the Dual Monarchy had bombarded the Italian littoral railway from Molfetta to Sesto San Giorgio, shattering one viaduct and setting on fire a factory. The statement added that several depots and the station at Santo Spirito were burned; that the signal station and five factories at Bari were bombarded, one factory being destroyed, and that the railway viaduct at Sesto San Giorgio was badly damaged. The Italian submarine Neretide was reported to have been sunk in an encounter with an Austrian submarine off the island of Pelagosa in the Adriatic S. S.

ITALIAN OFFICIAL.

The following official statement was issued last night at Italian headquarters:

The struggle beyond the Cadore frontier becomes more intense. In the zone of Montebello the enemy in force, backed by numerous artillery, attempted yesterday to counter attack our positions, from which he was thrown back the day before. After a hot fight he was repulsed with serious losses.

In the Sexten Valley (Carnia), while the fire of our artillery against the works of the enemy was continued, our infantry climbed to the summit of Ordebercher Kanzel, a little south of Ordebercher Spitz, there intrenching, while another detachment occupied an important branch of Alpine communications west of Forcella Cengia.

On the Isongo a destructive artillery fire was begun on the works defending the Plezzo Basin. An enemy battery located in a cavern above Svinjak and cleverly concealed was struck fairly yesterday. On the Carso Plateau during the night of August 13 the enemy set off a number of rockets above our positions, but made no further attacks. Our groups of artillery continued their methodical destruction of the enemy's trenches, some of which, opposite our positions at Selbusi, were demolished. Their defenders were put to flight, most of them being struck by shrapnel and rifle fire which was directed against them.

Enemy aeroplanes in the last few days frequently have flown over the Isongo region, but always have been driven back by the effective fire of our anti-aeroplane batteries.

In the Adige Valley an armored train of the enemy, on which were mounted small calibre guns and machine guns, tried to raid the Serravalle railway station, but was easily repulsed. A small attack against our positions at Monte Maggiore, on the plateau northeast of Asiolo, also was repulsed.

In the Valley of Popra (in the upper Rienz) the enemy in force attacked positions recently conquered by us, but after a sharp struggle was obliged to fall back with heavy losses.

In the Sexten Valley on the 13th the enemy's artillery ceased to reply to ours. Our infantry accordingly advanced as far as the slopes of Seikofel and Croda Rossa. In the same way in the Palvizo Basin and in the Monte Nero zone our infantry, supported by the fire of heavy field artillery, made considerable progress.

An enemy armored train carrying light artillery attempted an attack without success at the extreme end of the right wing of our positions southeast of Monfalcone.

AUSTRIAN OFFICIAL.

Vienna, Aug. 15.—The official communication issued by the Austrian War Office to-night follows:

On the southwestern front generally there has been greater activity. In the region of Gorizia our artillery fired some bombs on Mt. Castel. A strong hostile attack near Raduriga collapsed before our fire. The bridgehead at Gorizia was held by the Italians under moderate gunfire.

In the sector from Tolmein to Krn, after severe artillery preparation, strong hostile forces opened attacks which everywhere were repulsed.

In the district of Flitsch and on the Carinthian front the artillery combats were stronger than usual. During the night the enemy continued firing against our positions at Great Val Freikofel and at Little Val Freikofel. A strong midnight attack against our positions at Little Val Freikofel failed completely.

In the Tyrolean frontier district several Italian attacks against our frontier positions west of Kronsberg in the district of Roth and Peak in the Bacher Valley and Dreizinnen-Hutte were repulsed.

On the plateau of Lavaronne and Folgarida our heavy artillery bombarded enemy fortifications at Campomorone and Torano with visible success.
